

Farewell ceremony for Sir G. Mishra and Ma'am Bonolata Anthony

On April 16, 2024, St. Aloysius' Orphanage and Day School bid farewell to two distinguished educators, Sir G. Mishra and Ma'am Bonolata Anthony, whose combined service of over three decades has profoundly impacted the school community. The ceremony began with a heartfelt prayer dance, symbolizing the deep spiritual connection between teachers and students and setting a reverent tone for the evening. A carefully crafted PowerPoint presentation eloquently depicted the remarkable journey of Sir G. Mishra and Ma'am Bonolata Anthony, highlighting their unwavering dedication and significant contributions to the school's growth. The soulful melodies of the school choir resonated with all attendees, particularly the retiring teachers, expressing gratitude for their profound influence. A compelling skit titled "Architects of our Future" emphasized the pivotal role of teachers in society, celebrating their impact on shaping future generations. The graceful performance by the Aloysian Dancers served as a touching tribute to the retiring teachers' legacy. Reverend Father Devraj Fernandes, the school principal, extended heartfelt felicitations to Sir G. Mishra and Ma'am Bonolata Anthony, acknowledging their exceptional service and invaluable contributions. The farewell ceremony celebrated their unparalleled dedication to education, leaving a lasting imprint on St. Aloysius' Orphanage and Day School as they embark on a new journey.
